What happens next?

We will send a prompt written acknowledgement of your complaint. If the nature of the complaint is unclear, we may telephone or write to you to clarify the area(s) of concern.

We will then carry out a full investigation by gathering the information needed to properly review your complaint. This may mean that we will ask you for more information or papers to assist us in the investigation.

In our experience, gathering all the facts and paperwork enables us to consider all the information available at the one time, which is in the best interests of reviewing a complaint comprehensively. If we do need to request details from you, we therefore ask that you respond as fully and as soon as possible.

The complaint may be the responsibility either wholly or in part of another firm. In these circumstances we will promptly refer the complaint to the other firm, inform you of this fact together with the other firm's contact details.

We will fully investigate your complaint and respond to you within 8 weeks of receipt. This letter will be our final response letter.

If your complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction then you are entitled to refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service. In our final response letter, we will always provide you with full information about how to do this.

If you require any clarification on our complaint procedures, please do not hesitate to contact us.
